NOTES

At fol. Iir, Giulio Bertoni (in a note dated September 1905) stated that the marginal annotations written close to Petrarch's poems are excerpts from Pseudo-Antonio da Tempo's commentary.

Beyond these annotations, several other marginal and interlinear annotations by the same and, at least, one other hand either provide variant readings, or add missing words and lines, or correct the poems, or else provide information about how to reorder some series of compositions; several pen strokes cross out poems; many maniculae.

While writing this ms., the copyist signaled when he wrote some fols. (e.g., 'sexto decemb[e]r MccccLvij in Vrbe. Dantes' (fol. 105r)).

Decorated initials for RVF 1 (fol. 108r) and several other RVF poems (in an unsystematic way), at fol. 108r is an architectural frame with a coat of arms at the bottom of the fol.
