NOTES

Marginal annotations by the same hand point out those passages of Petrarch's poems that Filelfo identified as translations from Latin and Greek authors; some other annotations by a later sixteenth-century hand refer to either the names or the mythological episodes mentioned by Petrarch. At fols. 37v, 38v, 40r, 40v, and 135v, some annotations in Greek by a seventeenth- or eighteenth-century hand mention the names of two (possible) possessors of the ms, and offer moral sententiae (fol. 40r-40v).

Decorated initials in gold for every RVF poem and the beginning of each section of Filelfo's commentary.
