Other contents:

The ms. includes several poetic and prose works in Latin and Italian arranged and for the most part copied by Jacopo Donati. At fol. 37r, the copyist states that he composed the sonnet 'O misera mortal uolatil uita' and copied part of the ms. when he was in Pistoia in 1468: 'Jlsop[ra]dett/o/ sonetto feci jo scriptore Jacopo di nicholo di chiocho donati i[n] pistoia q[ue]st/o/ di 8 di febraro 1468 essendo i[n] dett[o] tempo podesta i[n] detto luogho'. The ms. begins with two summaries of its contents, a modern one, and the original one, penned by Jacopo Donati (fol. VIr-v: 'Questo libretto su il quale sono scritte piu uarie belle et piaceuoli cose inprosa et in uersi. come p[er]latauola Sidimostra e di me iacopo di niccolo di chocchio donati fiore[n]tino'). In addition to Petrarch's works, the ms. contains numerous epistles by Leonardo Bruni (fols. 37r-38v: 'Copia di una lettera di mess[er] Lionardo dareçço cancielliere della mag[nifi]ca et excielsa Sig[no]ria difirenç'; fol. 58r: 'Copia duna lettera Scritta p[er]lo clarissimo poeta lionardo aretino, AL dogie di uinegia in nome de X dellabalia di fire[n]çe'), Brigida Baldinotti (fols. 48r-52r: 'Epistola mando donna Brigida donna fu di nic[olo] baldinotti dipistoya alle donne dello spedale di Sancta maria nuoua di fiorenç'; fols. 52v-57v: 'Epistola donna brigida a una fanciulla'), Giovanni Boccaccio (fols. 78r-80r: 'Epistola di messere giouan[n]i bocchacci fiorentino doctissimo, ch[e] trouandosi a napoli diriçço a fra[n]cesco dimess[er] alexandro alhora aghaeta'), and other authors. At fols. 37r, 38v, 60v, 70v-77v, 81r-89v, 96v-101v are a series of poems by Jacopo Donati and several other authors (Simone Serdini, [Nicola Tinucci], Benedetto Accolti il Vecchio, Bianco da Siena) on moral and religious topics. Throughout the ms. Donati added in the margins and blank spaces a range of heterogenous short texts, such as Latin sentences, Latin poems by Bartolomeo Aragazzi da Montepulciano, prayers, and excerpts from Augustine's De civitate dei.
