NOTES

The commentary focuses on and explains the literal sense of RVF 71, providing a summary for each stanza. The more detailed observations deal with the first two stanzas. The commentator concentrates in particular on the ‘alta impresa’ of the first stanza, which is Petrarch’s intention to celebrate Laura’s eyes, and, for the second stanza, on his sense of inadequacy with respect to Laura.

Due to damp and its precarious state of conservation, the original fols. of the ms. have been framed in a newer and more extended piece of paper.
