NOTES

In the fols. with RVF poems, occasional marginal annotations by the same hand either point out names of characters mentioned in the poems, or add some missing words, or else give variant readings; other occasional marginal annotations by at least two different hands either give variant readings, or (once) transcribe a sonnet modelled on one by Petrarch (i.e. next to RVF 102 is a note ['Nicolaus salinbeni'] and a sonnet ['Cesare poi chel falso traditore'], fol. 51r); a few maniculae. In the fols. with the *Triumph*i, scattered marginal annotations by the same hand (as that of the annotator of the RVF) point out the names of the characters mentioned in the text; other occasional marginal annotations by at least two different hands add a few missing words or lines; a few maniculae.

RVF 137-138 (but not 136) are crossed out by pen but still legible (fol. 71r-71v).

Decorated initials in gold for RVF 1 (fol. 9r) and Triumphus Amoris I (fol. 150r); at the bottom of fol. 9r is a rectangular decoration with an erased coat of arms at its centre.

Fols. 1<sup>1</sup>-3<sup>1</sup> (= 185-187) were detached paper fols., bound in the ms.
