NOTES

The ms. lacks the beginning of the commentary on RVF, the beginning of the index of first lines, and both the beginning and the end of the commentary on the Triumph.

RVF 114 (fol. 31v) and the respective commentary and RVF 137.1-3 (fol. 53v) have been crossed out by pen. Close to this second poem is a note by a later hand ('proibito tutto'). The following fol., which would have contained RVF 137.4-14, 138 and 139 and its commentary, has been taken out (as is shown by the fact that the original numeration of the fols. skips fol. '97' and goes from fol. '96' [fol. 53] to '98' [fol. 54]).

Dionisotti identified the commentary on the Triumph carried by this ms. as being by Patrizi, as the commentary on the RVF; see Paolino 1999, 180. Another ms. carrying this commentary on the Triumph is Bologna, Biblioteca Comunale, A 363; see Alessio 1990.

Occasional marginal annotations include: names of characters, speakers, and addressees; a note of possession ('G. Tomaso Coscia de la cita de Capua', fol. 139v); and a few catchwords referring to the content mentioned in the commentary (fol. 140r).

According to Paolino (1999, 155), this ms. is one of the six manuscript copies of Patrizi's commentary to RVF. The other copies are: London, British Library, Additional 15654; Rome, Biblioteca Casanatense, ms. 50; Paris, Bibliothèque nationale de France, italien 1024 and italien 1026; Florence, Biblioteca Riccardiana, Ricc. 1141. There is also another ms. containing Patrizi's commentary: Vatican City, Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana, Barb. Lat. 3937.
