NOTES

In the Munich copy (see digitized copy 1), before the Triumph there is a hand-written Latin life of Petrarch by a humanistic hand (<inc> Franciscus Petrarca natione etruscus religiosus devotissimus et philosophus ac poeta sui tempis [sic] clarissimus; <exp> multo splendore fulgentes ac ingenti suavitate redolentes) and the three-line Latin epitaph for Petrarch ('Frigida francisci lapis hic tegit ossa petrarce').

In the British Library copy, there are some handwritten annotations on a few RVF poems (at fol. q8v).

In the Barbier-Mueller copy, there are many underlinings and handwritten marginal annotations to the Triumph (almost all referring to characters mentioned in the poems).
